One of my favorite phrases when I am feeling BLAW and how this mantra got started is when I am or You are feeling less than, or frustrated, mad, blue, angry I would tell myself or clients to start saying to themselves right away in the moment that they are:
"Beautiful, Loved, Appreciated & Worthy."

Then my partner, Mitchell Levy, owner and creator of AHAtthat, who does Social Enabled Ebooks created This AHA book for me in 140 Languages, so then I decided I would pick 5 of the top phrases he did in 140 that would be great reminders for people when they needed that pick me up.

So here are the 5 Mitchell Levy and I picked:

- Beautiful, Loved, Appreciated, Worthy
- Thank You
- I Love You
- Did You Share A Hug Today?
- Go forth. Do good.
